

Press conference in the city hall, Nesselwang, 21st February 2013

Under the direction of Peter Fiebiger, Vice-President of the German Deaf Sports Federation - Public Relations the press conference took place in the City Hall, where Irene Epple Waigel, Patroness of the World Deaf Alpine Skiing Championships, Fritz Erhart, Mayor of Nesselwang, Mike Schmauser, ICSD Technical Director Alpine Skiing, Karl Schmid, Chairman of the ski club Nesselwang and Birgit Willmerdinger, Head of the Organizing committee, as well as local media representatives and the deaf OC team employees were attended to it.

After active interchange of information with answering questions of the journalists and media, there was unanimous agreement that the World Ski Championships will be a very well organized event, especially by reasons of the generous snowfall in the last few days.

The opening ceremony will begin on 23rd February at the Alpspitzbahn at 17:00. After then the VIPs, athletes, officials, guests and tourists will go together through the town Nesselwang to the Champions Park, where the 1st World Deaf Championship will be opened solemnly.